Name of activity: Inter Faith Week 'Question Time'

Organisation(s) holding the event:

The Grange School

Short description:

We would like to invite local people from a range of religions to be part of our 'Religious Question Time' project. This will involve a panel of different religious representatives from across our community forming a panel. The idea is that students from Year 10 and Year 11 can ask questions of our guests to gain a greater understanding of the various religions represented in our local area.

Through the project we also hope to:

Increase the understanding of people of religious and non-religious beliefs.

Increase awareness of the different and distinct faith communities in the UK, in particular celebrating and building on the contribution which their members make to their neighbourhood and to wider society.

Strengthen Interfaith relations.

Build stronger links with Faith organisations across the community to allow for future collaboration with our school.

Provide students with an opportunity to use their questioning skills.

Increase students' depth of understanding of different religions.

Name of activity: The Many Colours of Hinduism: Bath announces plans for National Inter Faith Week 2019

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Bath Interfaith Group

Short description:

A special event is being held in the city of Bath on Tuesday 12th November to celebrate national Inter Faith Week.

Hosted by Bath Interfaith Group, which next year celebrates its 30th anniversary, the event will explore the diversity of the Hindu tradition.

Hinduism, thought to be the oldest religion in the world, is full of diversity and colour.

Jane O'Hara, Secretary of Bath Interfaith Group, said:

'As part of the Diwali season, we wanted to do something that not only celebrated the occasion, but would give people living locally the opportunity to find out more about the richness and depth of Hinduism.'

Five speakers from a range of Hindu traditions have been invited to take part in a panel discussion, followed by a Q&A session.

The speakers are:

- Ashish Rajhansa (Bath Hindu CIC)
- Charlotta Chandrika Martinus (Universal Yoga)
- Owen Hanner (Mohanji Foundation)
- Nathan Hartley (ISKCON)
- Cllr Yuktेशwar Kumar (B&NES; Council)

The first national Inter Faith Week was held in 2009 at the suggestion of the Inter Faith Network for the UK's Trustees, in response to a report from the (then) Department for Communities and Local Government, which suggested that more needed to be done to bring about cohesion and unity among diverse communities.

Over the last decade, communities across the country have been hosting and coordinating events that celebrate diversity, and encourage people from various religious backgrounds (and none) to come together to learn from one another.

'Our interfaith event in Bath is a chance for us to learn, understand and celebrate diversity together with others,' added Jane.

'The Many Colours of Hinduism: A Panel Discussion' will take place on Tuesday 12th November, 7.30pm at The Weston Hub, Penn Hill Road, Bath (BA1 4EH).

This is about places of worship working in partnership with other organisations, our communities and the police, to effectively plan and respond to emergencies. This event will consist of presentations from Counter Terrorism Security Advisors, West Yorkshire Police, Kirklees Council Emergency Planning Officers and the Cohesion Team.

The question posed to places of worship within Kirklees is: Would you be able to respond to a major incident within your community?

This is an event to educate, give places of worship confidence in dealing with the initial stages of a major incident and raise awareness amongst the faith community of where to get help.

SHOUT Festival of Queer Arts and Culture

Short description:

What does it mean to be queer and religious? What happens when faith, sexuality, and gender identity meet?

This panel discussion brings together artists from a range of religious backgrounds and practices to talk about what it means to be LGBTQ+ and religious, how their faiths inform their creative work, and discuss how we might move the conversation forward.

Join author of Unicorn: The Memoir of a Muslim Drag Queen Amrou 'Glamrou' Al-Kadhi, Midlands theatre-maker Zeddie Lawal, and actor and theatre-maker Barry Fitzgerald for performances and a panel discussion chaired by Amerah Saleh.

This event is presented by SHOUT Festival of Queer Arts and Culture, in partnership with Birmingham Museum and Art Gallery.

SHOUT SAYS: This year in Birmingham we've seen some of the fiercest debates around religion and LGBTQ+ identity. These are conversations our communities need to have, so we're bringing together four artists leading the way in exploring faith, sexuality, and gender in the UK, to talk about their work, lives, and experiences. Come along and get involved in the discussion.

IMPORTANT INFO: Suitable for ages 16+, accessible entrance to the gallery space is via the lift at the Gas Hall Entrance on Edmund Street.

Footsteps (Faiths For A Low Carbon Future)

Short description:

Birmingham Climate Emergency - What's in it for local communities?

Our annual event (as part of national Inter Faith Week) to bring faith communities together to take action on the climate emergency.

In June 2019, Birmingham City Council declared a 'climate emergency'. The emergency declaration commits the council to 'taking communities with us' in seeking to be net zero by 2030. But how can this be achieved?

This year's Tread Lightly conference will be an attempt to answer that question, by engaging with diverse stakeholders in one local area of Birmingham, to discover what concerns people have, and how that relates to the climate emergency.

Programme

1.30 Optional Tour of Shree Ram Mandir. We are pleased that this will be our first major Footsteps event at a Hindu venue.

2:00 Presentations & Discussions

Cllr Waseem Zaffar, Cabinet Member for Transport and the Environment: The Birmingham Climate Emergency and Sparkbrook;

SEWA (Selfless Efforts for Welfare of All) Sewa UK is a humanitarian non-profit service organization;

Plus speakers from local environmental and community initiatives - transport, air pollution, health, green spaces.

Followed by a faith and environment community fair with bases where you can learn, have fun, get ideas and meet other groups that taking action.

4:30 Food - Gujarati vegetarian meal provided by the Mandir volunteer cooks.

Short description:

Rugs woven by groups of women from different faiths, around the theme of wisdom, and textiles from the Gawthorpe collection, showing designs from different cultures and traditions, on display together at the Exchange.

One set is a collection of rugs from the Touchstone Centre, Bradford, woven in wool by groups of women from different faiths, in the UK and in Pakistan. Each group was asked to consider: Who are the wise women that have influenced my life? Who are the wise women in my holy text and faith tradition? and What is the wisest piece of advice I have been given? Based on the conversations they had had together each group was then provided with a pack of materials with which to make a rug. Groups have included interfaith forums, schools, Girls Brigade groups and even a book group. The resulting rugs are stunning and have given great opportunities to women who are often side-lined in more formal interfaith dialogue. These rugs give a living testimony to inter faith dialogue, to the place of wisdom in the lives and traditions of different women and - made with different techniques - they are a physical continuation of the history of the woollen industry in this country.

Come and see how these tell stories of tradition, faith, history and place.

In recent years, Bolton Interfaith Council has ran a successful Young Ambassadors project working with girls and young women across Bolton, and the project concluded earlier this year.

Since then we have been developing ideas regarding a new youth project, and are now excited to announce plans for a launch consultation event entitled 'Bolton Faith Youth', to take place during national Inter Faith Week this November - 10:30am-1pm on Saturday 16th November at Friends Meeting House Bolton (BL1 1PP), with lunch and refreshments provided.

The event will be an open consultation to share and discuss ideas for a new ongoing youth programme, to be developed in collaboration with young people from all faiths and none, between the ages of 11 and 25.

On the day we will have a short presentation about Bolton Interfaith Council, followed by round table discussions on key questions such as 'What does Faith mean to you', 'What does Interfaith mean to you?', 'What are the things that religious people have in common?', 'What can we religious people do to work together?' and 'What can young people in Bolton do to help?' This will then lead into wider feedback and a full group discussion, to develop outcomes and action points moving forward.

Name of activity: Arts and Culture - Second Wednesday Event: SPIRIT

Organisation(s) holding the event:

University Hospitals Bristol NHS Foundation Trust

Short description:

Spiritual care is important to all people, not only those who express a religious belief. Patients have a constant need to make sense of their circumstances, to find meaning in the events of their day, their relationships and their life during periods of illness and hospitalisation. Spiritual care recognises the humanity, the uniqueness and the person-hood of everyone.

Art in all its many forms has much to say and much which can support people in both identifying with and giving expression to what might be termed 'spirit'. Like faith, art invites us in to an experience which may be shared with others, or intensely unique and personal. Throughout history people have used art to try and describe their beliefs, to capture the unknown, to give voice to the spirit. Who of us hasn't been moved by a picture, a poem, a story, a sunset or a place?

In his work as a hospital chaplain, Mark Read meets people who are exploring issues related to their spirit, who are trying to make sense of their experience and who are grappling with their hopes and fears. Mark will talk about some of his work with patients as an introduction to helping us discuss and explore the healing connections between space, art, spirit and healing.

Dr Anna Farthing, Arts Programme Director for the Trust will introduce and lead the evening which will include open discussion.

There will be talks from:

- Georgina Bolton, Creative Producer, Public Arts Officer for Bristol City Council and Associate Lecturer on UWE Curating Course. Georgina will help us think about the impact and use of space.
- Natalia Mesa, Medical Doctor, and specialist in Medical Humanities who worked for 20 years in Colombia and Spain. Natalia will use paintings and art to help us explore the influence of spirituality on healing.

Name of activity: Health Matters Event: Faith in Health

Organisation(s) holding the event:

University Hospitals Bristol NHS Foundation Trust

Short description:

This event forms part of the Trust Health Matters Programme and will explore the theme of 'Faith in Health'. It is an opportunity to help shape our health care in the future and to hear the voice of people who sometimes feel their faith needs are not recognised.

It is widely recognised that faith is a powerful force in the lives of many individuals and communities. At this event we will explore the importance of understanding faith in the context of care in our hospitals and consider how this contribution might be developed to improve health outcomes.

The event will be led by Chaplaincy Team Leader, Mark Read, and will involve representatives from faith communities across Bristol. There will be a key note address from Councillor Tom Aditya, Mayor of Bradley Stoke and Chairman of Bristol Multi-Faith Forum, followed by personal stories from faith perspectives. There will then be opportunity for you to be involved in a discussion about important aspects of care for people of faith and how we can improve our care in the future.

Celebrate Bristol's unsung heroes - An initiative of the Bristol Multi-Faith Forum

Recognise the People & Projects that are run by individuals and organisations, that are inspired by their faiths or beliefs to make a difference by working to serve their communities and bring people from different backgrounds together.

Shine a Light on the great work done by ordinary people to make Bristol a city where everyone belongs and feels welcome with work that often goes unrecognised. It aims to bring together organisations and individuals from across Bristol who work tirelessly in their local communities for harmony and inclusion.

THE AWARDS ARE supported by Bristol City Council's Deputy Mayor, Cllr Asher Craig, and Bristol Rovers Community Trust.

Short description:

You are warmly invited to a Friendship Walk on Saturday 9th November at 2pm.

The walk will start from Gorleston Boat Pond by the beach. The walk will be about an hour with refreshments after at 24 Cliff Hill.

This October in countless settings and places throughout the world people will celebrate the 200th Anniversary of the birth of the Forerunner and Herald of the Baha'i Faith, the Bab, whose ministry paved the way for the appearance of the Faith's Founder Baha'u'llah.

Here in Gorleston we plan to hold a Friendship Walk to celebrate with some friends and neighbours the core principles of both the Bab's and Baha'u'llah's teachings that:

- All people and things share the same Creator
- All are sacred, beautiful and worthy of respect of whatever religion, gender, race and nationality
- All deserve peace through unity and justice

Trees for Cities

Short description:

Trees for Cities is holding a tree planting day in Goodmayes Park and Orchard Playing Fields (formerly known as Goodmayes Rec) on Saturday 23rd November 10am - 3pm. Everyone is welcome to join us, it might be especially ideal for a volunteer group, youth club, gardening club or environmental society.

There will be a chance for everyone to plant trees on the day. A free hot lunch and drinks will be provided along with all the tools you need.

In Goodmayes Park we are planting small young trees in the area in front of the existing woodland to create more space for wildlife and for local residents to enjoy. At Orchard Playing Fields there will be more young trees which will create a green area around the edge of the sports pitches so they are still useable.

Short description:

We are pleased to present a screening of the award-winning film, The Sultan and the Saint. Narrated by Jeremy Irons, the film tells one of the great, lost stories from history about Francis of Assisi and the Sultan of Egypt. Set in a past period of East-West conflict, it speaks with urgency to our present. Two men of faith, one an itinerant Christian preacher, the other the ruler of a Muslim Empire, bucked a century of war, distrust, and insidious propaganda in a search for mutual respect and common ground.

In partnership with South Lakeland Interfaith Forum & Rumi's Circle for Inter Faith Week 2019.

Everyone, of any faith or no faith, is invited to our interfaith discussion on Tuesday, 12 November, at 7.30pm. We'll be looking at the current hot (and getting hotter) topic of climate change, and what our beliefs and faiths might say about this. You don't have to belong to any faith, and you don't have to share if you don't want to. We'll talk and listen and learn from each other on this very important topic.

Please come early for snacks!

Everyone welcome!

Name of activity: Signs on the Earth: faith inspired responses to the climate emergency

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Muslim Staff Network, University of Leeds

Short description:

Leading environmentalist, Fazlun Khalid will talk about what is perhaps the greatest threat humanity faces today, namely climate change. The dangers we face from climate change are well documented and Climate Action Tracker tells us that Morocco is the only country in the world that is on course to achieve the 1.5 degrees Celsius target whilst the rest of the world will be hard put to it to get anywhere near the 2 degrees Celsius limit set by the Paris Agreement.

Fazlun Khalid argues that what has brought us to the edge of disaster is the human proclivity to tamper with the default settings that make nature work aided and abetted by a political economy that promises the good life. The Green Energy Movement, the Divestment Initiative and the push for Sustainable Development are all parts of a package of initiatives put together to stem the global warming tide, but in Fazlun's opinion, they go no further than tinker with the technicalities. The problem is systemic and political economy the issue. Lifestyle change is now urgently called for if we are to avoid planetary collapse.

Fazlun Khalid will offer his views on this important topic with reference to his recently published book, 'Signs on the Earth - Islam, Modernity and the Climate Crisis.'

There will be a Q&A session, and opportunity for further discussion during refreshments following the talk.

Name of activity: Will Faith(s) Save the World? Panel Discussion with Bishop Patrick McKinney

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Short description:

To mark Inter Faith Week, Bishop Patrick McKinney will be joined by people of different faiths, to have a discussion on whether faith(s) can save the world - what do people of faith contribute to society, and why?

Are you interested in what drives people of faith to work for change?

Would you like to hear from local activists who are making a difference every day?

Does the relationship between faith and justice fascinate you?

People of faith come together to discuss how (and why!) they are working to create a better, fairer world for all - entering into dialogue, taking social action, and protecting and campaigning for the environment. The speakers will explore their personal motivations, and discuss the role of faith in moving people to change the world.

CULTURE ON THE OFFENSIVE

Short description:

Run by the new Social Enterprise, 'Culture on the Offensive' Philosopher DR Greg Scorzo will lead a talk and discussion about:

Should religious schools be able to teach claims that are at odds with secular values or knowledge?

This session will be about exploring questions about the scope of religious education and faith schools, such as: How do we navigate the possibility of teaching students claims that go against either secular values, or public knowledge? For example should faith schools be able to teach pupils that evolution isn't true? Or that being gay is a sin? If not, in what sense are we allowing education to ever be truly religious education? Should we get rid of faith schools and religious education altogether?

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Herefordshire Interfaith Group

Short description:

Come and join us for a day of spiritual contemplation, conversation, song and dance, organised by Herefordshire Interfaith Group at Green Lane Methodist Church, Leominster, Herefordshire, HR6 8QJ

Together we will share spiritual community and seek to find wholeness and healing including practical ways in which we can help ourselves and each other in these challenging times.

We welcome all spiritual explorers, those of all faiths and of no faith.

A bit more about the facilitators:

Karim and Susanne run workshops in the Dances of Universal Peace (a form of spiritual circle dance using sacred phrases from the world's religious traditions) and devotional singing in Herefordshire, Birmingham and elsewhere. Susanne is a practising Catholic and Karim follows the path of Universal Sufism.

Brian Holley is a Quaker and retired trainer who helps deliver one-day workshops with the Kindlers team and is devoted to learning, teaching and writing about spiritual subjects.

Frances Biseker is a Methodist Minister currently serving churches in Herefordshire. She especially enjoys leading quiet days using music, art and craft.

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Faith & Belief Forum

Barking & Dagenham Faith Forum

London Borough of Barking and Dagenham

Short description:

Join us as we unveil the preview of the Faith Builds Community Policy and raise a flag to celebrate Inter Faith Week in Barking & Dagenham.

Over the past 11 months, the Council and the Barking & Dagenham Faith Forum have been working with our partner the Faith & Belief Forum, to create a new two-part document, with the vision of creating:

A better connected, faith friendly borough, where people of all backgrounds feel safe, celebrated, and included

We are excited to announce that the policy is now complete and we invite you to this special preview event, to view a representation of our shared vision for working together in Barking & Dagenham.

We spoke to over 100 of you to create this policy. It is the shared ambition and commitment of Barking and Dagenham Faith Forum, in partnership with faith communities and the Council. At the heart of the Faith Builds Community Policy is recognition of the need to reinforce the contribution of faith communities in our borough and focus on both the contribution and the challenges that we face together.

We will also be raising a flag to celebrate the diversity of faith organisations in the borough, during Inter Faith Week. Please join us from 11am in Barking Town Square as we raise the flag.

The schedule for the event is:

11:00 - Gather in town square for flag raising

11:05 - Welcome and Introduction speech

11:10 - Short speeches

11:20 - Sharing from local school

11:30 - Flag raising

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Marylebone Scriptural Reasoning

Short description:

Our November SR session takes place at New North London Synagogue (NNLS), in Finchley. The theme will be decided nearer the time.

Scriptural Reasoning is a tool for inter faith dialogue where people of different faiths come together to read and discuss their holy texts. The aim is not to seek agreement but rather to explore the texts and their possible interpretations across faith boundaries, and learning to 'disagree better'. The result is often a deeper understanding of the texts and the development of strong bonds across faith communities. SR is now practised globally, including in places affected by religion-related tensions and conflict.

Name of activity: Faith Leaders Forum - Discussing safeguarding issues within our community

Organisation(s) holding the event:

London Borough of Bexley

Short description:

A meeting of the Bexley faith leaders' forum. The forum aims to provide a safe space for people to discuss the wider cultural issues that impact the wellbeing of children and families in Bexley. Also, to explore how faith leaders and other agencies can learn from each other to better support families.

The focus of this session will be on Domestic Abuse and the wider context. Domestic abuse can affect people from all social and economic backgrounds regardless of age, ethnicity, religion or sexual orientation. However, this still remains a taboo topic in some communities so this session will focus on how we can better recognise signs of domestic abuse and how to respond.

There will be a presentation, followed by a workshop discussion and Q&A. There will also be opportunities for networking.

Organisation(s) holding the event:

The Education And Religion Special Interest Group, UCL Institute Of Education

Short description:

Art can foster dialogue between faith and non-faith communities, while running the risk of misrepresentation. This Education and Religion SIG Seminar brings together two speakers who are immersed in using the arts to challenge assumptions in formal and informal educational contexts.

Alia Azougbi will present her work as Head of HEC Global Learning Centre in schools and museums. With a strong commitment to challenge the notion of faith communities as homogeneous, Nothing About Me Without Me, promotes the importance of working closely with individuals to maintain the integrity of authentic voices. Alia's role as an educator and storyteller in school and community settings draws on her insights into collaboration and pedagogy. Working with teachers to support students' experiences of learning about migration, the scope of Alia's work extends to her involvement with the curators of the new Albukhary Gallery of Islamic Arts at the British Museum, where public education and museum education for schools meet.

Laura Moffat is director of Art + Christianity, an organisation that seeks to foster and explore the dialogue between art and religious traditions. Through projects, events, publications and consultations the organisation has forged collaborations and partnerships with galleries, art institutions and places of worship as ways to address current issues such as migration and community relations. Laura will present Art + Christianity's projects with faith and non-faith communities and an alternative provision in a London school. She will also share the work of commissioned artists and art historians who have raised awareness of the diversity of historical and contemporary art in churches.

Organisation(s) holding the event:

UCL

Short description:

From church kneelers and banners to mosque table cloths and challah bread covers, fabrics are literally woven into the experience of faith and worship. In 2016, as part of her PhD at UCL's The Bartlett, Katy Beinart brought together 15 women from different faith communities to explore the relationship between creativity and religious practice, and share how fabrics shape and illuminate their faith. In this lecture, she will talk about the stories and journeys this work uncovered and what she found out about women's hidden contributions to the lived experience of spirituality and devotion.

Short description:

In October 2018 David Morris, the University of Westminster's Assistant Interfaith Adviser, began a 9 month residency at Gampo Abbey, a Buddhist monastery on the remote Cape Breton peninsula in Nova Scotia, Canada. He was ordained as a monk and practiced a daily schedule of meditation and service to the community; living by the vows of a novice monastic and learning from the Buddhist nun, teacher and community founder Pema Ch&#8217;dr&#8217;n.

Having completed this residency and returned to his role as Assistant Interfaith Adviser at the University of Westminster, he has been asked many times how it feels to be back in the world . In this talk and discussion he will share his experience of retreat / return, and other seemingly opposing notions like discipline / freedom and mundane / sacred, exploring how these categories now feel less distinct than he had previously thought them to be.

He will also be sharing wildlife photos, answering questions (with an open invitation to the daring and critical) and dropping numerous quotes from Leonard Cohen, who spent 7 years living in a Zen Buddhist monastery, along the way. For now, back in the world , he can agree with Leonard's reflection on monastic life, that 'it is a great luxury not to have to think about what you are doing next'.

Universal Peace Federation - UK

Short description:

Kindly Hosted by Virendra Sharma MP and Seema Malhotra MP

The Universal Peace Federation, in partnership with the Women's Federation for World Peace, would like to extend a heartfelt invitation to a (North West) European Conference to be held in the Boothroyd Room of the House of Commons, London, on Thursday November 7th from 1 pm to 5 pm.

We will be considering the theme - 'Reconciliation and Peace Building in a time of increasing polarisation: The Need for Cooperation Between Political and Faith Leaders'

The conference will also launch the Inter-religious Association for Peace and Development (IAPD) in the United Kingdom. IAPD, as a sub group within the Universal Peace Federation, will focus on developing inter-religious dialogue and promoting fora that encourage political and religious leaders to cooperate in policy formation. Speakers include Rev Dr Marcus Braybrooke, Co-Founder of the Three Faiths Forum, Rev. Kim Plumpton, Cobham United Church, Sanjay Jagatia, former Secretary General of the Hindu Council UK and Archbishop Johannes Ndanga of the Apostolic Christian Council of Zimbabwe. Part of the session will feature two speakers from Ireland who lost a family member during 'the troubles' and their journey following that tragedy.

The conference will explore, from both political and religious perspectives, how reconciliation and constructive dialogue can bridge the growing divide between opposing sides in an age of populist politics and promote consensus building in the public space of our nations. The second session will include politicians and young leaders. Speakers include Professor Lord Bhikhu Parekh and representatives from UPF's Young Achievers.

Short description:

Join us as we celebrate Inter Faith Week with a Panel Discussion exploring the meaning of 'Faith' and its impact on Public Service.

What does faith mean to people who believe? How does this differ between people of different religious groups? Do people of faith feel that they can bring their whole selves to work? How important is it for us to understand the religious beliefs of the Faith communities that we serve on a daily basis, through our work as Public Servants?

Many feel that faith has become a taboo topic in the workplace and that there is no unity / cohesion between different faith communities.

At this event we will hear from Senior Civil Servants and people of faith as we explore these topics, questions and more. This will be a safe space where all are welcome, regardless of Faith and/ or Belief, to share their thoughts, learn more about different world religions and ask questions on this important topic.

With people of faith making up a significant percentage of the public work force and the public at large, come and learn what role we can all play in making the Civil Service a more inclusive employer.

This would be an opportunity for you to speak about your ideas and aspirations for peace.

Our evening is an occasion to meet like-minded people in building peace. It is a platform where we share our ideas, you can speak and share about the mediums of peace you are interested in and expand your interest. We will share with you UPF's work internationally and also about work in the UK but more importantly, we would like to share with you a little bit about the peace principles upon which our work is guided.

On all occasions there is a positive atmosphere created by the presence of people who are working for good causes. We find that the beginning of friendships are built in these first meetings.

If you wish to share a few minutes (up to 5 minutes) please let us know; this is optional of course.

Short description:

We are delighted to be hosting Imam Qari Asim of the Mukkah Masjid in Leeds, Reverend Dr. Sam Wells of St Martin in the Fields and Rabbi Dr. Harvey Belovski of Golders Green United Synagogue ('Dunstan Road'), who will be joining us to mark National Interfaith Week

I am very humbled and excited that we are hosting three deeply religious, but impressively open-minded faith leaders for a frank and open discussion about our texts and about the significant challenges facing our society in 2019.

Our great interfaith advocates have included former Chief Rabbis Lord Jacobovits and Lord Sacks and we are delighted that CNSS will become the stage for an important encounter - especially in the light of elections and faith challenges in broader society.

All three faith leaders are recognised widely for their knowledge, their willingness to grapple with faith and religion in a modern society and there will be ample time for an extensive Q&A session for all of us to ask some of those challenging questions.

The evening starts at 7:30pm with Maariv and a bagel supper and the interfaith conversations will commence at 8:00pm.

Short description:

As part of Inter Faith Week (10th to 17th November 2019) we are bringing together a Rabbi, Priest and Baptist Minister to engage in a conversation about our different faiths, our shared and divergent histories, the significance of our faiths and the challenges we face in contemporary culture.

- Revd. Richard Young (Anglican Priest)
- Revd. Rich Blake-Lobb (Baptist Minister)
- Rabbi Arron Goldstein (Jewish Rabbi)

You are invited to join us, to listen in and to ask your own questions.

With anti-Semitism sadly on the rise and with social and political divisions causing deep fractures we want to bring people together to discuss, learn and value our shared humanity. We don't agree on everything (and that's ok) but we can learn from one-another and want to provide an opportunity as faith leaders to have a public conversation, to engage with our local communities (with those of different faiths and none).

You're Invited! We are hosting an opening reception for our pop-up exhibit Togetherness: A Culture of Belonging at the Goldsmiths St James Hatcham Church. Nov 7th 4:30-7:30pm. Drinks, snacks and curriculum resources for educators provided!

This exhibition turns the church into a world inhabited by child artists. It shows a world where community and identity are shaped through friendship and cross-cultural understanding, a world where we belong together. Showcasing carefully curated works from the international research project Interfaith Childhoods, children from across London bring their stories to life through digital animations, patchwork quilts and canvases of future cities. The show will draw viewers into the minds' eye of the child and capture your imagination and heart. Works exhibited include animations exploring identity and belonging and canvases mapping out future cities populated only by 'what really matters'.

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Waltham Forest Islamic Association

Short description:

Waltham Forest is where the annual Mawlid (Birthday) celebrations of Holy Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) started and subsequently spread throughout the UK and Europe. This annual celebration includes a peaceful procession, a public display of love for Holy Prophet Muhammad (PBUH).

The celebrations, now in its 39th year, are a mainstay cultural feature of Waltham Forest and one of the largest and longest running continuous events of its type in Waltham Forest.

This year Waltham Forest Islamic Association (Lea Bridge Road Mosque - @wfiaindon) proudly celebrates the Birth and Life of our Master, Holy Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) on Sunday 10 November.

After mid-day prayers at 1pm, a peaceful procession will be held as part of the birthday celebrations around town, where volunteers will be handing out sweets along the route.

Back at the mosque (after 3:30pm) we invite all to join us for some food. There will be speeches (in English till 5:30pm and Urdu thereafter) covering Prophet Muhammad's (PBUH) blessed life.

To celebrate Inter Faith Week, 10th to 17th November, IFMK is hosting a Multifaith Service in the main worship area of The Church of Christ the Cornerstone, 300 Saxon Gate, Milton Keynes MK9 2ES on Tuesday 12th November 2019 from 7:30 to 9:30pm.

One act of worship from each of twelve of the city's main religious groups will be presented, allowing us all to experience one short representative act of worship from Hindu, Buddhist, Catholic and Protestant, Bahá'í-, Jewish, Sikh, Unificationist, Sunni and Shia Muslims, in a spirit of peace, unity and harmony.

We are honoured to be hosted by Anglican Vicar of Christ the Cornestone Rev. Ernesto Lozada-Uzuriaga who will host us and open the service with prayer and lead the Lighting of Candles of Unity by religious representatives at the altar. Cllr Sam Crooks, the Mayor of Milton Keynes, is our guest of honour.

We are also truly grateful to be donated delicious food for the buffet by the ladies of Trubys Garden Tea Room.

Short description:

Faith Leadership Training Initiative (FLTI) is for leaders involved in faith based organisations in the Thames Valley, at Lady Margaret Hall, University of Oxford, on 4th November 2019, from 9am to 5pm.

The Oxford Foundation has been actively involved in the design and creation of this programme in partnership with the Edward Cadbury Centre for the Public Understanding of Religion, University of Birmingham, and a number of other faith organisations. This programme is fully funded by the UK Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government (MHCLG), as a result of which it is free to all participants, although we are having to limit entry to 4 persons per organisation. Our rapidly-changing world keeps posing new practical challenges for faith leaders. How do we lead our organisations effectively? How can we identify, confront and prevent abuse of all kinds from occurring in our communities? What does British law say about marriage and divorce, about equalities and hate crime? Our focus, broadly, on this intensive day of training will be:

Leadership
Governance
Safeguarding

Each participant will receive an interim completion certificate and details of how to complete the remaining content online or in additional face-to-face training will be provided on the day. The day will include refreshments and lunch

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Centre for Muslim-Christian Studies

Short description:

Led by Shafi Fazaluddi (Ph.D. Candidate, SOAS, University of London)

Despite its important social implications, conciliation in the Qur'an remains a fragmented and under-researched field of study. This seminar will focus on Conciliation in the Meccan suras Q.6 and Q.7, and will argue that Conciliation is emphasised through the central notion of al-Istislah (reconciliation, reform, order). The analysis reveals that al-Istislah is the central axis around which equilibrium is maintained in the Divine world order, a process of Divine education in the form of revelation and prophetic instruction, which prevents and contains disputes and directly aims to address the angelic complaint, at man's creation, of fasād and bloodshed on the earth. As such, al-Istislah is integrally embedded in the Qur'anic discourse and appears to be the primary responsibility of man as God's vicegerent. The origination narrative of Adam and Satan, embedded within the discourse on al-Istislah, utilises the repeated term of address 'O Children of Adam' to provide a clear sense of universal and timeless appeal.

On Thursday the 14th of November 2019, we would like to welcome you at the Inter Faith Week Reception in Reading. This is an annual event where we celebrate the good relationships between people of all faiths in our town.

Apart from sharing food, we would like to discuss what it means to live in a country and town that have declared a climate emergency. Rather than talking about technological solutions, we will dig deeper and ask ourselves:

Can our faith or spirituality bring us into a healthier relationship with the natural world?'

We will finish the evening with the traditional Noah's pudding.

This is a free event. If you can, please bring & share some vegetarian food for our finger buffet. We appreciate it if you can RSVP to readinginterfaith@outlook.com.

Cross-Sector Safety & Security Communications

Short description:

Senior police officers in the UK have encouraged places of worship to step up their security in the wake of the global increase in attacks on faith communities.

To support our multi-faith community the CSSC (Cross-Sector Safety & Security Communications) South East Region has created a one-day event which will provide advice and guidance on how people and places of worship can prepare and better protect themselves in the event of terrorist attack.

This session will start by discussing how to prepare and respond to a terrorist attack in a place of worship . It will cover how blue light services respond to a terrorist attack and how you can better prepare your place of worship. The session will also provide guidance around the salvaging of artefacts in the event of a fire or following any other type of incident.

One Community

Short description:

As part of Rotherham Inter Faith Week, we are organising a Jigsaw Treasure Hunt across Rotherham Town Centre.

The purpose is to familiarise young people with different faith, community and civic places of interest around Rotherham town centre, to aid in building a more cohesive community. In Rotherham there are many different faith groups, with distinct values and beliefs and it is vitally important to build bridges between people of faith and no faith for the sake of the unity of our community.

We are looking for groups of 4 children accompanied by a responsible adult to meet at Liberty Church at 11.00am on Saturday 16 November, where they will be given clues to find Jigsaw pieces outside 20 key buildings across Rotherham.

The teams have 2 hours to complete the Jigsaw and meet at Ridge Road Mosque at 1.00pm for their final jigsaw piece, where prizes will be awarded for each team that completes the Jigsaw, and a prize draw will take place for the winners.

Leave Liberty Church Rotherham at 11.00am and finish at Ridge Road Mosque at 1.00pm

Short description:

Parkwood Forest Garden is a beautiful calm space and a productive permaculture project. It is a young forest garden developed by Sheffield City Council in association with volunteers. After a summer of incredible growth in the garden we are now continuing the autumn tidy up. As always we will be undertaking general maintenance tasks focusing on existing plants and shrubs.

Thanks to the ongoing work by volunteers from the GoodGym we will be continuing to weed our way around the garden and to apply wood chip. The garden is looking wonderful but thanks to the bumper growing season there is plenty of digging to do so all help is greatly appreciated.

Thank you to everyone who has worked on, and visited the forest garden over the past months. We look forward to seeing old friends and meeting new ones as we continue to improve the garden.

If you would like to stop for a shared lunch at around 1pm, that would be great. Bring your own food and maybe something to share.

The workday will be hosted by Tim Shortland and Catherine Nuttgens who will be at the entrance of the car park from 10.45am. Contact details below.

Short description:

Join us for a free screening of Dawn of the Light , a newly released documentary produced by the Bahá'í- World Centre.

Gender inequality, racial injustice, unequal wealth distribution: these are just some of the global issues we are facing today. The UoS Baha'i Society would like to invite anyone who recognises the oneness of humanity and has a desire to address these issues to join us in watching this incredibly inspiring new film.

Two hundred years ago, the Báb appeared, inaugurating a new Dispensation and preparing humanity for the light of Bahá'u'lláh's Revelation.

Dawn of the Light portrays several individuals from different continents as they relate their own personal search after truth and meaning. They share their discovery that God has sent two Divine Messengers – the Báb and Bahá'u'lláh – Whose teachings are revolutionizing human thought and behaviour, changing darkness into light. The film shows glimpses of how this same discovery is inspiring the efforts of many across the globe to serve humanity and to contribute to building a new pattern of life.

Every year Y6 (90 pupils) come to the church and after a short prayer at 11 around the town memorial in the church grounds the pupils are let loose over the churchyard with hand made poppies. These poppies contain poems and / or prayers. They seek out the War Grave Commission war graves - about 30 - 40 and place their poppies on them. They will also often find family graves with people who died in the wars as well. The poppies stay there until the wind takes them sometimes they stay for the whole year!

The Parkes Institute

Short description:

James Parkes in the Hitler Years - International Interfaith Interracial Humanitarianism'

When World War One veteran James Parkes went up to Oxford in the fall of 1919 he was part of a generation in search of 'the moral foundations of a way of life' that would preclude a repetition of what had just happened to the war-torn world. The non-utopian path of impartial humanitarianism on which Reverend (and eventually) Dr James Parkes embarked after Oxford had both international and national implications, for, in his view, humanity reached fulfillment through the fullest possible development of all of its constituent nations. Humanity's progress would only be made through mutual understanding, respect, and cooperation between the peoples of nations, races, and religions.

As thirty-two year old Parkes took up the work of building international understanding for the International Student Service in Geneva in 1928, its greatest challenge was the mounting aggression of nationalists toward Jewish minorities in the new or newly configured post-WWI nations of eastern Europe. Even though the redrawing of national borders had been reinforced by mandatory Minorities Treaties that guaranteed the rights of those within the new or expanded states, there was avid discontent over who was and was not a state national. Within months of the signed treaties Numerus Clausus laws, which most radically applied to Jewish students, restricted university education to those who fit the newly structured nationalist criteria of belonging.

By the time Parkes assumed the role that would lead to his life work in the history of antisemitism and Christian-Jewish relations, the leader of the antisemitic party in Romania was an esteemed university professor; agitation, nationalist ardour, and anti-Jewish violence had spread from universities to the general populations; and the combined effects of Numerus Clausus in Hungary, Poland, and Romania, both by law and de facto, had driven as many as ten thousand eastern European Jewish students to expatriation in search of university enrollment.

Within this context, the 2019 Interfaith Lecture will look at the pioneering humanitarian thought and work of Parkes as he moved back and forth between the internationalist milieu of Geneva, the nationalist fray of antisemitic politics in eastern and central Europe, and the home front of Britain during the Hitler years.

Organisation(s) holding the event:

ENEI

Short description:

During Inter Faith Week, the Employers' Network on Equality and Inclusion is holding a religion and belief taster webinar, open to members and non-members.

In today's multi-cultural society employers have a huge responsibility to manage issues surrounding religion and belief in the workplace in a sensitive and inclusive manner and can face significant reputational risk and costs when they get it wrong.

This webinar explores the legal and practical complexities now facing all employers and will give you an understanding of how you can manage religion and belief in your workplace. Specific focus will be:

The demographics of religion in the UK

The law

Issues for employers

Some common dilemmas - what would you do?

Key legal cases

The Employers Network for Equality & Inclusion is a network of employers, not affiliated to any religious groups. We provide regular briefings, legal alerts and access to the best informed network of leading employers in the UK.

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Weston Hospicecare

Short description:

Weston Hospicecare is inviting people to visit Jackson-Barstow House to contribute towards an exhibition to celebrate Inter Faith Week between 11-15 November.

Although the charity emerged from a Christian church in 1989, it cares for people of all faiths and beliefs.

The exhibition will take place in the chapel at Jackson-Barstow House and supporters are encouraged to bring photos and objects which symbolise and celebrate different faiths.

Hospice chaplain Karen Murphy says it's a great opportunity for the charity to get involved with a nationally-celebrated event.

She says: 'While the hospice has its roots in the Christian faith, our services are available to people of all backgrounds.

'We are looking forward to acknowledging the rich diversity of cultures and beliefs in our local area.'

Karen will be hosting a one hour workshop between 2-3pm on Thursday 14 November where people are invited to share their experiences of living in a multi-faith society and to celebrate diversity.

Active Black Country would like to invite you to be a part of the Wolverhampton Faith & Sport Network. Through our research and work with partners including places of worship we have identified a clear need to connect places of worship with the sports & physical activity sector to better understand opportunities for collaboration.

We recognise the importance of places of worship as institutions for worship but also as a place for community cohesion, development and regeneration. Therefore, it would be great if you could join us for this initial network meeting as we start to bring together places of worship/faith-based groups with Sports/Physical activity providers and strategic partners to explore how we can align and have impact.

The network meeting will consist of activity providers informing those in attendance of what can be offered on your terms and in your environment.

- Development of local and individual plans
- Investment for projects and/or building modernisation/extensions
- Training of volunteers in Sport/Physical activity
- Perceptions (expelling some myths/perceptions about the sectors)

Name of activity: Inter Faith Orange Event (Stop Domestic Violence)

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Interfaith Wolverhampton

Short description:

Join Interfaith Wolverhampton for an event discussing ways to tackle domestic violence.

The 25th of every month has been designated as Orange Day by the UN Women campaign Say No, UNiTE launched in 2009 to mobilize civil society, activists, governments and the UN system in order amplify the impact of the UN Secretary-General's campaign, UNiTE to End Violence against Women. Participants the world over are encouraged to wear a touch of orange in solidarity with the cause - the colour symbolizes a brighter future and a world free from violence against women and girls.
