"Islam promotes violence.

Islam is incompatible with the West.

Muslims are oppressed.

Muslims promote an agenda of abuse and sexism."

Time and time again, we hear the same misconceptions and false ideas about Islam and what it is to be a Muslim being promoted, from right-wing groups to the mainstream media.

Using both textual evidence and personal experience, our panel will be combatting this misinformation, as well as exploring the reasons behind it.

We invite everyone to come and ask any questions, no matter what misconception you may have heard.

ARTICLE 2 NON-DISCRIMINATION- The Convention applies to every child without discrimination, whatever their ethnicity, gender, religion, language, abilities or any other status, whatever they think or say, whatever their family background.

ARTICLE 12 RESPECT FOR THE VIEWS OF THE CHILD- Every child has the right to express their views, feelings and wishes in all matters affecting them, and to have their views considered and taken seriously. This right applies at all times, for example during immigration proceedings, housing decisions or the child's day-to-day home life

ARTICLE 13 FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION- Every child must be free to express their thoughts and opinions and to access all kinds of information, as long as it is within the law.

ARTICLE 14 FREEDOM OF THOUGHT, BELIEF AND RELIGION- Every child has the right to think and believe what they choose and also to practise their religion, as long as they are not stopping other people from enjoying their rights. Governments must respect the rights and responsibilities of parents to guide their child as they grow up.

Organisation(s) holding the event:

St Nicholas Hospice

West Suffolk NHS Foundation Trust

Wedgwood House

Short description:

Staff from healthcare providers across Suffolk have come together to highlight Inter Faith Week with the launch of a special video. The video brings together staff from the trust with colleagues from St Nicholas Hospice and Wedgwood House, and describes how their chaplaincy services offer a place for people to deal with moments of great joy and great tragedy. The chapel at West Suffolk Hospital in Bury St Edmunds would normally host services from a range of faiths including Church of England, Roman Catholic, and Islam, but most in-person services are currently on hold due to social distancing rules. Chaplain Rufin Emmanuel said: "Our chaplaincy work with our colleagues across West Suffolk - at our hospitals, at hospices, and reaching out into the wider community - brings together people of many beliefs for moments of reflection, comfort, and worship. We are proud to bring together people of many faiths, responding to their individual needs. We are celebrating Inter Faith Week, but for us every week is an inter faith week. We are here for patients, visitors, and staff in those important moments, whatever their need, whatever their beliefs."

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Anglia Ruskin University

Short description:

As part of Inter Faith Week, Dr Imranali Panjwani shares Islam's under-recognised role in inspiring notable English writers who used the egalitarian teachings of the Qur'an and Prophet Muhammad to reform aspects of English society during the Enlightenment. Historical evidence shows that writers such as Henry Stubbe, John Toland, Samuel Coleridge and others were drawn to Prophet Muhammad's reforms of women's rights, education and civic participation. By examining how all our histories connect together, we can break barriers and stereotypes about each other's religions and cultures.

Dr Imranali Panjwani has lived, studied and worked in the UK, Middle East and Australia as an academic, lawyer, chaplain and community worker.

ONLINE TALK: Victorian England; Robert Stanley was a respectable, northern working-class man.

He grew up within Ashton's Christian Israelite sect - who strictly followed Jewish (Mosaic) Law. Robert was self-educated and became a grocer and tea-trader. He joined the Church of England and made it his mission to tackle injustice. He rose to become one of Britain's first working-class magistrates and mayors, witnessing first-hand some of the most violent riots and progressive reforms of the Victorian era.

In 1898, aged 69, he took the astonishing decision to convert to Islam. And his family covered up his life, for 100 years.

Day 2 of a three day series has Stacey Marriet speaking as the Co-ordinator for Crisis Cafes, Acts Trust in Lincoln, UK.

Lincoln's Night Light Cafes are open seven nights a week for people struggling with their mental health. The cafes first started in March and work on a referral only basis. You refer yourself by contacting the café in advance. The cafes aim to be there to support people experiencing a crisis, hoping to reduce the suicide rate and offer hope that there are people out there that care. For a while, the cafes were online, but they have now resumed their in-person work in accordance with Government guidelines. There are only three guests a night in a bubble with three volunteers per night. The cafes provide a peaceful atmosphere where people can relax, de-stress and have food and drink. There are activities on offer to help with relaxation. They provide a friendly non-judgemental environment. Stacey will share her community support insight and practical steps that anyone can apply to support their mental health during the pandemic

'Bringing Smiles To Your Door' was a co-ordinated campaign of special deliveries of plants and bulbs and laminated pictures from nursery and school children and uniformed groups to accompany regular essential food shopping, parcels and meals. Launched on World Kindness Day on Friday 13 November, ahead of Mitzvah Day, and part of Mitzvah Day's Month of Mitzvahs, which includes a focus on combatting isolation and loneliness. It is hoped that the initiative can then grow across our local faith and care sectors.

Pupils have celebrated UNICEF Children's Day and Inter Faith Week by having an afternoon of art to design posters to express, share and celebrate their beliefs. Linked to Article 14 from the United Nations Conventions on the Rights of the Child - Every child has the right to think and believe what they choose and to also practice their religion, as long as they are not stopping other people from enjoying their rights - each year group discussed the importance of this right whilst considering the message of Inter Faith Week to strengthen relationships between people of different religions and beliefs building awareness and understanding. Each year group was given a concept to develop in their artwork: Year 3 - Celebration of Beliefs; Year 4 - A Community of Equality; Year 5 - A Place of Mutual Appreciation; and Year 6 - A City of Many Beliefs. The children shared their thoughts about this special celebration. Posters and quotes available at the second link.

Short description:

Redbridge Faith Forum is delighted to invite you to join us and The Worshipful, The Mayor of Redbridge, Councillor Zulfiqar Hussain, on Sunday afternoon 8th November at 3pm for our "Love and Remembrance" Event launching our first ever Virtual Walk of Peace

Sunday afternoon 8th November at 3pm via Zoom - "Love & Remembrance"

A highlight of our RFF year is normally our Walk of Peace which is always a very popular event with a large number of people joining us to walk together in fellowship and receiving a warm welcome into a variety of faith venues. We were so sorry that it is not possible for us to hold this safely in 2020 so we have decided that the next best thing would be to start Interfaith Week with an event launching our first ever "Virtual Walk". So please do join us so we can gather together remotely to watch the video tours our trustees have prepared to show you around their places of worship. Work is still in progress, but we hope to be able to piece the videos together with photographs from past walks. As this is also Remembrance Sunday, we will be taking the opportunity to hold a minute's silence to remember those who are no longer with us. We know what a difficult year it has been for us all and many of our members and supporters have been bereaved over recent months. We particularly wish to remember our founder and ex-Chair of Trustees Jacquie Grieve who has left us a wonderful legacy of service to others. In this event we will focus on the importance of "loving our neighbour" and will be dedicating this event to her memory. Please do invite friends and neighbours to join us in this community event to learn more about our faith communities.

Advance registration is not essential but is helpful so if you can please Email faith.forum@redbridge.gov.uk to reserve your place

We Look forward to seeing you virtually on Sunday.

Organisation(s) holding the event:

London Borough of Redbridge

Redbridge Faith Forum

Short description:

In this latest series of Women's Workshops we will hear briefly from Christian, Jewish and Muslim women who will share the practical steps their faith communities are taking to care for our living world. In future workshops we will hear from women of other faiths. The short talks will be followed by breakout groups so participants can share what they found inspiring in the talks. We will end the workshop with questions and comments. We hope that you will find something inspiring in these workshops which you can take away and put into practice in your own faith community.

So how have we found these past few months? How have we coped? What have been the challenges? What have been the highlights? What have we learnt? And how have we practiced and kept our faith?

We will also have some time to talk about how it's been for us.

As we cannot yet hold face-to-face meetings this workshop will be a virtual one using the Zoom App or facility on your smart phone, laptop or computer. Please register in advance by emailing us at faith.forum@redbridge.gov.uk - joining instructions with the zoom link will be emailed to all registered email addresses nearer the date of the event.

We are sorry we cannot offer you refreshments but please, make yourself a cup of coffee or tea, and bring a biscuit or cake treat to our virtual workshop and be ready to just sit back and listen and/or offer your insight into the chosen topic. Looking forward to meeting up again in our new virtual reality!!

Staff and students attended (virtually, of course) with members of the 4 major religions: Father Phil Sumner, Rabbi Daniel Walker, Mufti Helal Mahmood and Mr Jit Kara. Students had the opportunity to discuss key topics with leaders of the faiths. The first topic discussed was an obvious one. Students posed questions about how the coronavirus pandemic had impacted on the number of people accessing support from their faith. The leaders discussed how they had been working together to ensure the Oldham community as a whole was supported, such as using the Mosques to provide food packages for those in need. The overall message was that there has been an increase in the number of people accessing support, but it has been increasingly difficult to provide support in a meaningful way without face-to-face meetings.

Barnardo's See Hear Respond Partnership is supporting children, young people, families and communities across England who have been impacted by Covid-19. During Inter Faith Week, Barnardo's and Action for Children, supported by the Association of Muslim Schools UK are inviting you to an online discussion about the role faith groups have in supporting communities through Covid-19. This is an opportunity to bring key speakers from different faith groups to share what has been the learning. Our learning seminar will: Understand the importance of faith during the pandemic and how communities have found strength at this time; create a space for faith and community leaders to share their experiences of how they have supported their communities during the pandemic - what have been the challenges that have encountered and what has been their response; provide attendees the opportunity to listen, reflect and learn about the impact of the pandemic on communities - what has this meant for children, young people and families; and look to the future and how through a wider charity response we can support faith communities that many of our service users belong to.

Our learning seminar will allow people of different faiths and beliefs to share experiences, learning and reflections. Participants will have the opportunity to ask questions and contribute their views and learn about the See, Hear, Respond Programme and the Partnership.

Name of activity: Commemorating the Bosnian Genocide through Inter-Faith Dialogue

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Remembering Srebrenica

Short description:

In honour of Inter-faith week, Remembering Srebrenica is hosting a webinar on the importance of faith and inter-faith events and activities.

It has been 25 years since the genocide against Bosnian-Muslims was enacted by Serb forces and 75 years since the genocide against Jewish Europeans enacted by Nazi Germany. Despite the fact that Europe is home to two of the worst genocides in modern history, the targeting of religious minorities and ethnic identities continues to grow, both in the United Kingdom and abroad. Inter-faith dialogues, events, and relations provide us with a powerful tool to counter the hatred that causes discrimination and marginalisation of religious minorities. It allows us to deepen our understanding, cooperation, and raise awareness to ensure that we are promoting strong and united communities. Inter-faith events serve as a formidable vehicle to commemorate the genocide in Bosnia and ensure that the lessons of the past are learned by diverse groups of people.

Please join us as we discuss the importance of inter-faith events in commemorating the genocide in Bosnia, the impact of inter-faith events on cohesion building and genocide awareness, as well as how and what you can do to contribute to inter-faith events. Our panel of inter-faith event organisers will educate on the most effective way to host an inter-faith event, community organising, and how they've learned through their work to bring communities together to remember the genocide in Bosnia and stand up to hatred.

This webinar allows for the opportunity to educate yourself and others on how inter-faith events function and the important role they play in forging safer communities free of hatred. The webinar will end with a Q&A session where you will have the opportunity to ask questions.

The event will be hosted live on Remembering Srebrenica's official Facebook Page. A link to join the event on zoom will be sent to all that register their attendance through Eventbrite: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/commemorating-the-bosnian-genocide-through-inter-faith-dialogue-tickets-128598558751>

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Dialogue Society

Short description:

Dialogue Society will host a community engagement event as part of the Inter Faith Week that will bring members of different faith groups together to highlight their works and experiences in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The event will take place online and will be live-streamed to the Dialogue Society YouTube channel on 25th November 2020 at 17:00.

The COVID-19 pandemic has affected many communities across the UK and faith communities have been forced to close their community hubs and places of worship to help contain the spread of coronavirus. However, faith groups worked tirelessly with their never-ending compassion and altruism to inspire community spirit, hope, positivity, and help their communities cope with these uncertain times. As Dialogue Society, we would like to bring light to these efforts to inspire more individuals to do more.

The event will convey the message of hope, solidarity, care, empathy, and will inspire our communities to stand together as a strong cohesive society.

Speaker bios:

Viv Bartlett

Born in Cardiff, Viv Bartlett began searching for answers to life's problems after a tragedy struck, when his 14-year-old younger brother accidentally electrocuted himself. Finding answers in religion he became a member of the Bahá'í Faith in 1966. After serving an engineering apprenticeship in 'Tiger Bay' Cardiff, later travelling the world as an engineer in the merchant navy.

Viv has authored three books, with a fourth in process. He has travelled extensively lecturing on the Bahá'í Faith. His beloved wife, Rita, died of cancer 7 years ago, prior to which they parented three children and were foster carers.

He is a founder member of the Swindon Young People's Empowerment Programme (SYEP), a programme inspired by Bahá'í Teachings to help vulnerable, disaffected young people. A total of 27 primary and secondary schools have employed this programme. He was a Bahá'í representative on the first Interfaith Council for Wales established in 2003 and still serves on this body.

And,

Derek Cockshut

Derek was born in Lancashire where his family roots trace back over 300 years. The family were not particularly religious, however he developed an interest in his early teens in religions. In 1961 he heard of the Bahá'í Faith but did not investigate and confirm his belief until 1963. He served on a number of appointed committees for the UK Bahá'í Community from that time.

Derek and his wife Sima with their young family moved to Mexico as pioneers to assist the Bahai Community there. They later moved to the United States, in 1986 they were asked to assist in the operation of a Baha'i Conference Centre and Retreat in Northern California, Derek was appointed as Scholar in Resident creating among other things courses to study the major religions. Derek was asked to be the host for a TV Show 'Reflections of Unity' he hosted over 200 shows covering a wide range of subjects winning a national award in the United States. He has developed two specialized studies of important Texts in the Bahá'í Faith. His research on the religion in the UK discovered the earliest public presentation of the Bahá'í Faith, at the noted South Place Institute London in 1892, which at the time in Victorian England was a major platform for inter-faith knowledge and understanding.

Les Gornall

A Fellow of the Royal Society of Biology and winner of the ADBA AD Hero of the year award 2016, Les lives in Magherafelt and has been building anaerobic digesters since 1978. In the early 1980's, his work on farm waste digestion at the University of Ulster led to N. Ireland's award winning farm digester and in-vessel composter at Bethlehem Abbey for which he was awarded his Doctorate.. He patented designs for digester components, in-vessel composter technology and the use of gas engines for odour control and built an innovative plant in Warringstown that ran for over 18 years, a local record. Les is now regarded as a world expert on the subject of biogas and anaerobic digestion. Speaking of his delight at having been awarded the prestigious title from peers within the anaerobic digestion industry, Dr Gornall said: "I have tried to live by the Baha'i ideal that 'Man is organic with the world. His inner life moulds the environment and is itself also deeply affected by it.'

And,

Ian Holland is a Senior Advisor to the United Nations with exemplary 25 years service leading strategic partnerships, policy and programme design, implementation and management in international development.

The NHS and faith communities in Barking and Dagenham, Havering and Redbridge have joined together and created the BHR Health and Faith Network. The group began meeting informally in April in response to the pandemic with an aim to understand different communities' needs and to share important messages with faith groups. The members decided that the end of the pandemic, whenever this should be, shouldn't be the end of them meeting and so they developed a terms of reference and planned the official launch event as part of Inter Faith Week 2020. At the launch, Joe Fielder, Chair in Common, Barking, Havering and Redbridge University Hospitals Trust and NELFT NHS Foundation Trust, shared his thoughts on the importance of faith within the NHS. Also speaking at the event was Mohamed Omer, chair of Redbridge Faith Forum, Yunus Dudhwala, head of chaplaincy, Barts Health NHS Trust, and Mohammed Rashid, mental health chaplain, NELFT.

Sheffield Interfaith

Short description:

The news at the moment is not very encouraging, and it does feel as if we are being asked to dig deep. Nevertheless life must go on. In just over a week's time it will be Inter Faith Week. Normally we would have arranged for visits to different places of worship, but obviously this year that idea has been firmly kicked into touch.

What we have decided to do is to have a virtual Interfaith walk on Sunday, 15 November at 2 o'clock, using zoom.

If you want to join us then please email me at sheffieldinterfaith@hotmail.co.uk and I will send you the zoom invitation.

Instead of visiting different places of worship and finding out a little about the community there, we have decided that this year we will ask you to submit one photograph to Sheffield interfaith - sheffieldinterfaith@hotmail.co.uk. The photograph should be a place you have found significant during this pandemic. Our virtual walk will be a showing of your picture with you saying a few words about it.

Name of activity: Southampton Stories marks Inter Faith Week: The story of a chapel and gurdwara

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Southampton City Council Cultural Services

Short description:

This week is #InterFaithWeek. Southampton is home to many people of different faiths and places of worship. In 1861 a new Wesleyan Methodist Chapel was built on Peterborough road, to cater for the growing Southampton Methodist community.

The Chapel was badly damaged during bombing in the Second World War, but continued holding services throughout the war, until 1950. The building was then sold in 1952 and was used as a furniture warehouse. In 1970 the building again became a place of worship when it was brought by Southampton's Sikh community and became Gurdwara Nanaksar, the city's second Gurdwara. This video shows the transformation from Chapel to Gurdwara.

The Donna Louise Hospice for Children and Young People

Short description:

The Children and Young People at The Donna Louise Hospice in Stoke On Trent, have painted a mountain scenery using their hands, feet and wheelchairs. It displays the highs and lows of life and the many different but equally important paths we can travel. Sometimes the mountain blocks the sunlight, however knowing we can count on the love of our communities, family and friends, even if we cant be with them, makes it easier to see the sunlight shining on our path.

On 12th November we are inviting Donna Louise families, friends and their communities to join our social media interfaith activity, lighting a candle, or making a picture of a candle at home and posting a picture on social media tagging The Donna Louise using #ShareTheLight

Good Faith Partnership

Google Arts & Culture

Short description:

A UNESCO Goodwill Ambassador, Professor Sir David Khalili, has been a champion of interfaith understanding and intercultural harmony and appreciation. As an Iranian Jew who has assembled the world's largest collection of Islamic Art and is knighted by two Popes, he has been referred to by HM Government as "the embodiment of interfaith harmony".

Considered the world's leading cultural philanthropist, Sir David has assembled eight unique art collections, each considered the greatest of its kind and together representing multiple faith traditions. They include the world's most comprehensive collection of Islamic art and artefacts. He is committed to sharing it with the world through extensive scholarship and high-quality digitisation. By assembling, conserving and sharing these sacred objects, Sir David has enabled people all over the world to access and enjoy the cultural history and creative mastery of this great tradition and civilization.

In partnership with Google Arts & Culture, the Khalili Collections are proud to present A Visual History of the Hajj, a curated experience of 1400 years of Islamic pilgrimage, for audiences of all over the world to explore, based in its Hajj and The Arts of Pilgrimage collection, which containing over 4000 objects including more than 300 textiles and many other related objects associated with the two most holiest places in Islam: Mecca and Medina.

'A Visual History of the Hajj' is open to all and free of charge, at:

Explore other online exhibitions and over 1,000 sacred objects from The Khalili Collections in Google Arts & Culture: <https://artsandculture.google.com/search?q=khalili>

This initiative and Sir David's tireless efforts are driven by a deep-seated conviction that cultural philanthropy and interfaith harmony have the power to unite a broken world as one global family.

"I have spent 50 years of my life collecting, conserving, researching, exhibiting, and publishing the art of a religion that -as a Jew- is not my own. But I have always believed the Jews and Muslims are cousins, and I truly consider my efforts in this field to be the contribution of one member of the family to another. This is my message of peace to the world."

To mark Inter Faith Week (8-15 November), which aims to raise awareness of different faith communities and strengthen relations, we spoke to 5 older people about how their faiths have been affected by the ongoing coronavirus pandemic. An estimated 63% of people aged 65+ in England and Wales say they have a religion. For many people who identify as part of a faith, their beliefs - and the community of people with whom they share those beliefs - are an important part of who they are and how they connect with the world. However, in a year where our connections with the people and support systems we usually rely on have been fractured by lockdowns and social distancing, people's faiths have also been impacted.

Name of activity: 8 Days to Help Creation - Call for Action

Organisation(s) holding the event:

Warwick District Faiths Forum

Short description:

A very successful Interfaith prayer service took place via Zoom on Thursday in October in which people from different faiths gave a brief presentation which included readings from their faith perspective and Holy Scriptures on Creation. One common theme that came from the presentations was the need for everyone to take some responsibility for doing something to protect and heal this Creation, that has been given to us for our wellbeing, which unfortunately, is being damaged by our actions.

We agreed that what we want to do, as faith communities in Warwick District, is make a real difference. We agreed to make a long-term commitment to healing the planet through our actions. The meeting discussed immediate actions, during National Inter Faith week as well as longer term changes to our lifestyles. For National Inter Faith week, it was agreed that we would encourage our communities to get involved. Each person would decide what they would like to do for a day, some days or all eight days of Inter Faith Week, from the above, with encouragement to post on social media what they have done.

The whole school had a fabulous time celebrating Inter Faith Week. Due to current national restrictions we were unable to have people from different faiths visit our school but we were very fortunate that they kindly offered to send us a video instead.

We asked Josh and Rachel who are Christian, Yvonne who is Jewish and Satya who is Buddhist How does your faith inspire you to care for our world? We started the week watching a clip of David Attenborough's 'A life on our planet' which certainly inspired us to explore the sense of awe and wonder in the world and be inspired to be creative and imaginative.
